

City of Lebanon

Employee Spotlight

» » » Nacho Reyes

Let's get to know Nacho!

Nacho has worked with the City of Lebanon for 12 years. Currently, he is an Equipment Operator in the Street Division. He has learned many things during his years here because he has had some great teachers!

Nacho's favorite thing to do is pester Travis Johnson as much as humanly possible!

Nacho enjoys turkey and deer hunting and spending time with his wife and son.

Equipment Operator — Nacho Reyes

The last book Nacho read was Cobain Unseen, a documentary about Kurt Cobain.

Nacho's advice to his 13-year-old self would be to "Save money!"

When growing up, Nacho thought he would grow up to milk cows as his dad did.

Nacho's biggest pet peeve is when things are out of place. Just take a look at his work truck. It is always neat and orderly.

Nacho's favorite meal is anything breakfast!

If Nacho won the lottery he would buy the City of Lebanon and the Pontiac Catalina off Trading Post.

